Research Interest

My research interest is in deploying machine learning in high-stake decision-making. I apply formal methods to verify and improve safety-critical properties such as fairness and explainability in machine learning.

Education

National University of Singapore, Singapore

2018 - Present

Ph.D. candidate in School of Computing

Bangladesh University of Engineering and Technology, Bangladesh

2013 - 2017

BSc. with Honors degree in Computer Science and Engineering
